Jodi is an associate in the Calgary office. Jodi comes to law with experience and education in the non-profit sector and was previously the co-founder and executive director for a local non-profit in Calgary.

Jodi was called to the bar in 2017 and has since worked for a local law firm, where she also completed her articles. In that time, Jodi has developed strong professional skills in insurance defence and condominium law as well as contractual disputes. She also has a number of years of experience working with Pro Bono Students Canada, Civil Claims Duty Counsel and Emergency Protections Orders Project.

Jodi is an avid animal lover, enjoys playing sports and riding her motorcycle when weather permits.
